

Our Model

We value stability and routine for young children. At The Nest, we serve children from infancy until they reach age 2-3. We enroll young infants every September, and children ideally remain together for two years, until the September after they turn two. Our cohorts begin as two groups of 3 infants, each with a primary caregiver. As toddlers, the adult:child ratio shifts to 1:4, and the children will spend much of their time together as a group, while still maintaining a special bond with their primary caregiver. Two Septembers after they begin, the cohort will move on to preschool, and we will enroll a new group of infants to begin the cycle again.

Teachers move with their cohort from the infant room to the toddler room for their second year, providing continuity of care for the duration of children's time at The Nest. Families from The Nest are given first priority for spaces at our sister schools, Busy Bee Preschool and Sunflowers Preschool, and may end up staying together until they go to kindergarten!
